I have an important announcement for you today. At our last Vestry meeting on July 14th, the Vestry voted to invite a specific priest to become our Interim Rector, the person who will be our minister and advisor from the time Fr. Winston leaves until a new Rector has been installed. After this priest accepted our call to be our Interim, I asked Bishop Lino Rodriquez, our Diocesan Bishop to grant his approval of our choice. This is a requirement of the Anglican Church. He gave me his approval ten days ago so today I am pleased to present to you our Interim Rector, Reverend Robbin Del Nagro. I will be telling you more in the coming weeks, but Reverend Robbin comes to us with interim ministry skills and training and she will give guidance to our parish during this interim period; she is trained to respond to dynamics and issues which inevitably will happen during this time period. Obviously she will be conducting our services on Sunday and she will also be available several days during the week. It is important that you realize that she is not a candidate for the permanent position of Rector and that our Search Committee will continue with their process until a new Rector has been found.
